WHITE MAN WILL BE CHIEF OF THE WINNEBAGOES.

Imposing Aboriginal Ceremonies To Take Place at Black River Falls—Immigrants Invited To Settle Near Ashland—An Electric Railway at Berlin

Black River Falls, March 7—On April 30, T. R. Roody, Chief White Buffalo, will be installed as chief of the Winnebago tribe of Indians. This date commemorates the fortieth anniversary of Chief Black Hawk's accession to the head of the Winnebagoes.

Printed invitations are to be issued and seats and boxes for noted people who are expected. Buffalo Bill, White Beaver and many other noted persons have signified their intention of being present, also every red man from far and near, either Winnebago, Pottowattomies or Sioux. A United States marshal will be assisted by a corps of Indian police in keeping order. It is now anticipated that the greatest crowds ever seen in Wisconsin will be there.

In his home in this city, T. R. Roody, "Chief White Buffalo," has fitted up a room at his office and many relics of Indian life which he has collected, are placed here. The floor is covered with matting, which was made by the squaws which they weave of rushes and they are adepts in artistic designs and colorings. The walls are decorated with heads of animals from the chase, beadwork, wampum belts, guns, lacrosse rachets, copper instruments, and hundreds of other relics which have been given him at different times by some members of his tribe, which he values as almost priceless.

ASHLAND WANTS IMMIGRANTS

Plan to Promote Their Settlement on Unoccupied Land

The county of Ashland is going into the immigration business with a well defined plan in view, one that cannot help but result in great good. The county is going to secure as soon as possible the title to delinquent lands that tax certificates are held against and these lands will be used to encourage settlers to come here. The board has appointed a General Immigration committee consisting of E. P. Wheeler W. G. Nohl and G. F. Thomas and also the following auxiliary members to represent each town: M. J. Hart, city; C. P. Peck, Morse; O. G. Anderson, La Pointe; R. F. Goelner, Butternut; Peter Alexander, Jacobs; H. Hildebrant, Ashland.

Pensions to Veterans.

Washington, March 7—Pensions have been granted to residents of Wisconsin as follows:

Original—William H. Jenkins, National home, $8; William Duwe (dead), Forestville, $12.

Additional—Ole Peterson, Amherst, $8 to $10.

Increase—Archibald Andrews, Milwaukee, $8 to $10; Herman Rakutz, National home, $8 to $12; Hugh McDonald, Star Prairie, $10 to $12.

Widows—Minors of William Duwe, Forestville, $18; Sarah M. Davis, Wolf Creek, $8; Dorothea Simonson, Martell, $8.

State News in Brief

The annual examination of the building and loan associations of the state has been commenced by the bank examining department. The examining of the concerns are being conducted by Chief Clerk Rogers. The associations of the state are doing a business of over $5,000,000 annually. A uniform system of bookkeeping is being dovised and will soon be suggested to the various companies.

The first of four trains of twenty-five cars of malt left Milwaukee for the east Friday morning over the Chicago & Northwestern railway. The cars were appropriately decorated with flags and banners. The shipment was made by the American Malting company and is to New York. The other trains will be made up as rapidly as possible and dispatched and will be similarly decorated.

An epidemic of measles is raging in the towns of Vinland and Clemensville, Winnebago county.

A Humane society will be organized at Wausau and a Humane socity officer will be appointed.

WERE DRUNK ON SUNDAY

Some of the Offenders Who Faced Justice Today.

In spite of the fact that Officer John Brown was obliged to go to the Thornton home on North Bluff street and arrest the man of the house, Nathan Thornton, for being drunk and raising a disturbance, the prisoner pleaded not guilty in the municipal court this morning when arraigned. The case was adjourned for thirty days.

William O'Donnell, John Griffin and William Grimes were a trio of drunks who appeared and got five days each.

ELKS WILL GO TO MADISON

Will Assist In Instituting a Lodge at the Capital City

Members of the local lodge of Elks are at present laying plans to be in Madison on the 11th of this month, where they will take a prominent part in instituting a lodge in that city. The local lodge is composed of thirty members, and it is expected that a good sized delegation will go from here. All members intending to go will leave their names with Edwin Fifield, E. R.

Tommy—Is that the reason why you always turn the gas out when you sit alone with her in the back parlor?—N. Y. Evening Journal.

Hot Times Occasionally.

Singleman—In her girlhood days your wife was possessed of a very sunny disposition. Has she any of it yet?

Longwed—Well-er—enough to make it warm for me occasionally.—Up-to-Date.

MARKETS PUZZLE THE OLD OPERATORS

STOCKS IN ENGLAND AT AN EXCEPTIONALLY LOW EBB.

Belief That Warehouses Contain Considerable Wheat and Flour Unreported Stagnation in the Market Incompatable with Political Conditions—Rise in Prices Predicted.

CHICAGO, ILL., MARCH 7, 1898. W. O. CROLUIS, JANESVILLE, WIS. Receipts of wheat at primary market are 624,000 bushel against 611,000 bushels last week. Car lots at Chicago, Minneapolis and Duluth are 665 against 496 last week and 274 last year. A Minneapolis correspondent wires that "out of twenty-seven cars received here this morning by one firm eleven inspected No. 1 hard and the rest No. 1 northern." Another Minneapolis correspondent says: "We are anticipating quite large receipts this month to escape taxation. Cash wheat demand for flour both foreign and domestic. Another two weeks of good weather and seeding operations will be in active force." The amount of wheat and flour on passage increased 2,008,000. The world's shipments were nearly nine million bushels, or at least two million above the estimated requirements. Liverpool wheat stocks decreased 37,500 bushels and are reported as being only about one week's supply. It looks singular to say the least, that an importing country should in the fact of political complications, which would seriously affect her interests and her supplies show a declining wheat market and an indifference to stocks. It is evident that as in this country there is a private elevator stock which is not reported and as well it is sure that flour stocks are above the average. We have today 86 cars of contract wheat delivered from private to public elevators and manufacturers are still in vigorous operation. We see no reason to distrust the ability of invisible supplies compassing the visible demand. The market today has been governed by Cuban, Russian and Chinese complications and has shown only moderate activity. The pit is bearish. We advise our friends to sell only on sharp bulges at present.

Corn and potatoes have been real weak. Corn is cheap enough but the weather is favorable to a free movement and we may get a little lower market.

Provisions should be sold on rallies. The cash demand is decreasing.

ROBERT LINDBLOM.

NO LONGER NEED OF KEEPING QUIET

PREPARATIONS FOR WAR BEING OPENLY MADE.

Government Officials Acknowledge the Imminence of Hostilities, and Make No Concealment—Every Means for Offensive and Defensive Operations Being Adopted.

Washington, March 7—[Special]—For the first time since the relations between Spain and the United States became strained there is no attempt on the part of officials to conceal their activity and interest in the situation.

Conferences between the president and his advisers were going on all the morning. Secretary Long was with the president all morning, making frequent trips between the White House and navy department. Judge Day refuses to confirm or deny Spain's withdrawal of the intimation that Lee should be recalled.

BLANCO IS MUCH ALARMED

Outbreak Among the Spanish Soldiers Causes Apprehension

Havana, March 7—[Special]—The recent agitation among the volunteers causes apprehension among the Spanish officers. There is liable to be an outbreak any minute. Blanco is thoroughly alarmed.

It has become known that in addition to the investigation of the Maine wreck by the board of inquiry the United States secret service has been making an investigation in secret.

TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYERS.

Spanish Crafts Built in England Are Nearly Ready.

London, March 7—[Special]—The last of two Spanish torpedo boat destroyers being built here is nearing completion, the Spanish crews being already here. As soon as the boats are finished they will proceed to Cuba without delay.

MILLIONS FOR DEFENSE

The President to Expend a Large Sum at His Discretion

Washington, March 7—[Special]—Congressman Cannon, of Illinois, this morning introduced a bill providing for a fifty million appropriation for national defences to be expended at the discretion of the president.

SPAIN ANXIOUS FOR WAR.

What the Request for Consul General Lee's Recall Means.

Washington, March 7—Under ordinary circumstances the request of one of the governments to another to withdraw a consul general would raise but little comment, and if the government requesting the withdrawal, on the refusal of the one to comply, revoked the consul general's exequator no offense could be taken.

Consular officers frequently become persona non grata, and since they are not in the diplomatic service there are but two methods of getting rid of them—by asking for their withdrawal or by declining to have further business with them and revoking their exequaturs.

But the request of Spain for the United States to recall General Lee is made under extraordinary circumstances and in view of the very strained relations of the two governments it may lead to war. This need not be the result unless Spain is determined to have a fight and much depends upon the expressions employed in the request.

The request of Spain appears to have been made for the purpose of exciting the United States to take some action which will cause them to be responsible for any trouble which might follow.

SPAIN PROTESTS IN VAIN

General Lee Will Not Be Relieved Nor Will War Ships Avoid Cuba

Washington, March 7—In response to a request from Madrid for the recall of Consul General Lee from Havana and the use of merchant vessels to carry supplies to Cuba instead of warships, the state department authorizes the following statement:

"The president will not consider the recall of General Lee. He has borne himself throughout this crisis with judgment, fidelity and courage, to the president's entire satisfaction.

"As to the supplies for the relief of the Cuban people all arrangements have been made to carry a consignment this week from Key West by one of the naval vessels, whichever may be best adapted and most available for the purpose, to Mantanzas and Sagua."

It is remarkable that in spite of all the complications which have grown out of the Cuban situation General Lee has never once lost his head and not one word of censure has been directed against him by a member of any political party.

FORTIFYING SOUTHERN CITIES

Savannah and Mobile Being Guarded Against Attack

Savannah, Ga., March 7—[Special]—Hurried preparations to fortify this city are being made. A big shipment of submarine torpedoes and shells have been received.

Mobile, Ala., March 7—[Special]—Torpedoes will be stretched across the channel from Fort Gaines to Fort Morgan, to be fired by a switchboard which is being constructed. Other warlike preparations are being made on the gulf coast.

WEATHER FORECAST

Chicago, March 7 — [Special] —

Forecast for Wisconsin:

Fair and warmer.

SPANIARDS ARE INSOLENT

Americans Constantly Insulted on the Streets of Havana

Havana, March 7—[Special]—The return of the board of inquiry on Saturday created much excitement. Bands of Spaniards paraded the streets shouting "death to the Yankees." The arrival of Spanish warships has made the Spaniards more arrogant. They are becoming extremely insolent in their treatment of Americans. The civil guard is said to be on the point of mutiny on account of Blanco's conservatism.

THE STORY PROBABLY TRUE.

Doubt Thrown Upon the Reported Demand for Lee's Recall.

New York, March 7—[Special]—The World this morning publishes a Madrid cablegram saying that Spain has made no formal demand for Lee's recall. Other papers, however, accept it as a fact that Lee's recall has been demanded. Their views are borne out by the statement that the president will not consider Lee's withdrawal from Cuba.

FORTIFICATIONS AT WASHINGTON

Belief That the Capital Is Impregnable To Attack.

Washington, March 7—[Special]—The war department has been working night and day since the Maine disaster to fortify the water approach to the capital. It is now asserted that if one hundred warships steamed up Chesapeake Bay to bombard Washington, every one would be blown to atoms before they came within shooting distance of this city.

MAY BE CASUS BELLI

How Spain May Regard Relief Supplies For Cubans.

Washington, March 7—[Special]—Members of congress regard the president's insistence to send relief to starving Cubans in armed vessels as more serious than his refusal to recall Lee. Spain, they argue, may interpret as a cause of war these sending of warships supplied with provisions for hungry pacificos.

WILL ATTACK HAVANA

Cuban Insurgents Prepared to Move on the Spanish Stronghold

Havana, March 7—[Special]—Reports received here say the insurgents are prepared to march on this city when the first gun of the American fleet is fired on Morro castle. The forces of Garcia and Gomez are being concentrated at Jucaro Moron Trocha.

CONSUL BARKER HAS RESIGNED

Government Ignored His Report on Cuban Destitution

Havana, March 7—[Special]—It is reported that United States Consul Barker, at Sagua Lagrande, has resigned because the United States government has ignored his reports on the frightful condition of the Cubans.

WILL BUY WARSHIPS

President Has Decided to Strenghen the Navy

Washington, March 7—[Special]—The president is said to have practically decided on the purchase of two battleships, one protected cruiser, one torpedo boat, and four torpedo boat destroyers now being built for Brazil and Japan.

Lee Will Stick.

Havana, March 7—[Special]—General Lee told the American correspondents this morning that he would stay here as long as duty demanded.

Enlistments Ordered.

New York, March 7—[Special]—Orders were received at the navy yards this morning to enlist men without limit.

Artillery Bill Passed.

Washington, March 7—[Special]—The house this afternoon passed the senate bill providing for two additional companies of artillery.

MURDER OF INNOCENTS

Corpses of Seven Infants Found In a Burned Philadelphia Church Basement.

Philadelpaia, March 7—[Special]—The discovery of corpses of seven infants buried in the ashes in the cellar of Mount Zion church in this city was made public today. The corpses were found Saturday while the ashes were being removed. It is believed more bodies will be found.

Will Make Saddles

Joliet, Ill., March 7—[Special]—Wife murderer Luetgert was assigned to the saddle shop in the penitentiary this morning.

Steamer Disabled:

Halifax March 7—[Special]—The Steamship Catalonia arrived in the harbor this morning towing the steamer Delaware. The nature of the Delaware's disability is unknown

PROSPECT OF WAR ON THE CONTINENT

RELATIONS OF ENGLAND AND RUSSIA ARE STRAINED.

Belief in Diplomatic Circles That Hostilities Will Be Precipitated Soon—The Bear's Actions in Chinese Waters Are the Provoking Cause of Same.

London, March 7—[Special]—Dispatches received here have created fears that war with Russia is not an impossibility. All stocks are slumping rapidly. The Russian ultimatum to China also causes fear.

WAS TAKEN AWAY BY DEATH

One of the Sisters of Mercy Passes to Her Reward.

After an illness lasting sixteen months, Sister Mary Clare died yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's Convent of Mercy. The cause of her demise was consumption, and her suffering was borne with patience to the end.

Deceased was born in Ireland, and when a young lady, came to this country. For the past eleven years she has been a faithful member of the local convent, where the results of her good work told on all sides. The deceased was thirty-two years of age, and was a woman loved and esteemed by a host of friends.

Services will be held from St. Patrick's church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, the interment to be in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Michael Buob received a telegram this morning from Chicago announcing the death of his son-in-law, J. F. McGrew, whose demise took place this morning. No details were given.

POPE LEO INDISPOSED

His Holiness Unable to Hold a Reception at Rome Today

Rome, March 7—[Special]—The pope is suffering from a slight indisposition and has been forced to abandon his reception today.

ORDERED TO VACATE THE PLACE

Mr. Emerson Has Trouble In Getting Back His Farm.

When D. B. Emerson rented his farm near this city to James E. Finley he supposed he had a right to take possession of it himself just as soon as Mr. Finley's lease was out. But according to Mr. Emerson, who told his tale of woe in the municipal court this morning, Mr. Finley does not think of vacating in spite of the fact that he has been notified several times. The court, after hearing the arguments in the case, issued a writ which means that the strong arm of the law will see to it that Mr. Finley moves.

CORDIALLY GREETED HIM

Large Congregation Heard Rev. Mr. Maryon's First Services.

As rector of Trinity church Rev. F. M. Maryon preached his first sermon in this city yesterday morning. At both the morning and evening services he was greeted by good sized congregations. His morning theme was "And The Daughter Was Made Whole," while for the evening he chose for his subject, "The First Three Verses of The Fifty-First Psalm."

Rev. and Mrs. Maryon have taken up their home for the present at No. 3 North Jackson street.

FLUSHED WITH THEIR VICTORY

University Students Win Many Prizes For Athletics at Chicago.

Twenty students from the state university spent fifteen minutes in the city last evening, being on their way to Madison from Chicago. At the Windy City Saturday evening they carried away a greater portion of the honors at a joint athletic meet at which several of the western universities took part. While in the city last evening the boys sang songs and made merry over their victory till the train pulled out.

IS SOON TO BE WEDDED

Engagement of Miss Mary Tuttle and A. S. Thompson

To intimate friends and relatives the engagement of Miss Mary Tuttle, of this city, to Alfred S. Thompson, of Beloit, has been made known. The bride-to-be is a teacher in the State School for the Blind, while the fortunate young man is superintendent of the J. Thompson & Sons manufacturing plant in Beloit. Both have a host of friends who will extend congratulations.

STREET RAILWAY TO RESUME

Trips for the Season Will Commence When the Snow Disappears

Superintendent Mark Cumming of the Janesville Street Railway, says the local line will be put in operation just as soon as the weather allows the clearing of the tracks. This probably means the latter part of the present month. The entire line will soon be thoroughly gone over, and all necessary repairs made both to the road bed and the overhead wires. The same force of men will be in charge of the line as were on duty last season.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM THE PULPIT

REV. MR. KEMPTON SPEAKS OF CHRIST AND CREEDS.

Mr Hall Continues His Series on the Life of the Redeemer—The Ministry of Mercy Forms the Theme of Mr. Pence's Sunday Discourse.

Rev. Mr. Kempton took for his morning subject "The Ministry of Mercy." His text was in Matt. 5-7. "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy." Christ was a great reformer. Mercy is not found in nature. The storm will sink the ship upon the sea. Science has no mercy. It gives us many great blessings, but there is no mercy in science, Neither is mercy found in man's natural heart. God alone is the one who has mercy.

Notice first the kind of mercy spoken of by the Saviour. It is that which reaches out to all classes and things. See how much the world needs just such mercy as this. See how many are in want, and need of comfort. There are many even here in our own city who need mercy. Here are the poor and homeless, and those who are being led astray by those who are engaged in the haunts of sin and vice. If we would be merciful, we must have a merciful heart. Florence Nightengale, Abraham Lincoln and others are examples of mercy.

There is such a thing as a false mercy. What kind of mercy is that which will blanket a pet dog and let the half clothed servant shiver in the cold kitchen? How about the employers of labor? Are those who work for them mere "hands" or "servants?" Have they not human souls to save? I am glad that mercy is more common now than ever before. The greatest of all sins is to profess to be a christian and not show forth the spirit of the Master.

Notice the promise contained in the text. God deals with us just as we deal with those about us. If we are merciful, God will be merciful to us. We need not speculate about what will be received by us at the judgment day, for God will be sure to treat us as we do those about us.

Oh, that we may, by every act and word, show forth true mercy to those about us and at the judgment day receive mercy at the hands of the great and just Judge of all.

In the evening Mr. Kempton began a series of "Ten wide-awake talks for Sunday evenings." His subject was "Christ and Creed." His text was in Mark 1-5. The true meaning of the word Gospel is glad tidings to a lost world. Notice that it is glad tidings of a person. Not merely of sentiment or thing. A creed was a good thing in its time, but it will not do for these times; we need something that is more personal. A creed often stands in the way of peoples' conversion. They will not assent to parts of the creed and thus throw away all that is good and necessary. All they need is the gospel of Christ. That is the first step for christianity in Christ. A profession of christianity is following Christ, doing as he would do under similar circumstances. How that symplifies things.

The gospel is of a certain person, Jesus, that means "a helper of Jehovah." He is a helper in all things and under all trials and circumstances of life. Christ means "the annointed one," annointed that he might die for us. That he might save us. What will you do with Jesus, the Christ? Will you repent of sin, turn away from it and accept Christ? You do not need creeds but you do need Jesus. He can help you live aright and he alone can help you die. Creeds are good if they teach of him, but if they mystify and do harm, or hinder you in coming to Christ, the one who died for you, it is better that you let them alone and give your whole thought and life to Jesus, the Saviour.

A very interesting after meeting of ten minutes' duration was held and many manifested a desire to lead a new life.

THE LIFE OF CHRIST.

Rev. W. A. Hall's Discourse at Court Street Church.

There was a good congregation present yesterday at the Court Street M. E. church when Rev. W. A. Hall continued his course of lectures on "The Life of Christ." He said in part: Christ sitting in a fisher's boat, has spoken in matchless parables. His charmed audience on the shores are leaving slowly and with great reluctance. He desires to teach them with vivid object lessons. From where he sits, as a mere man, he can see the lake and distant shore, goldened by the morning sun. But the God who created all things, sees all things. He looks below the surface and sees large shoals of fish out a little from the shore. He sees also the discouragement, weariness and hunger of the fishermen. He says to Peter with him in the boat: "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a draught." Simon answers "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing, but at thy word, I will let down the nets." Whatever the discouragements of the past, when Jesus bids, obey. He can see the fish. He is wisdom infinite. Our great and constant mistake is that we do, and even in God's work, without God's guidance and heaven's help. The boat is out in deep water; down go the nets. Draw them in at once, they doubtless come easily enough. But no, how slow they come! How heavy! The nets are breaking. James and John come quickly. The splash of an incoming boat as it leaves the shore, the steady stroke of strong oarsmen and the other boat is alongside. Here, take a hand. Both boats are full. They begin to sink. The net is lowered a bit in the water. Nothing could have revealed the superhuman in Christ so overwhelmingly to the fisher Peter. He falls on his knees and cries out, "Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord." Get a clear glimpse of Christ's noble sinlessness and you'll not even question your own sinfulness. You are at once convinced and convicted.

What are the lessons of this incident? First, What under the most favorable circumstances (in the darkness the fish were most easily taken) was utterly impossible without Christ, became feasible and easy when Christ was abroad and directing. Second, Do even if you can not see the use, when Christ directs. Christ had a cheering word for Peter's ear alone. He said, "Fear not. From henceforth thou shalt catch men." Literary take them alive, as the fish were in the nets. But not to die Men are rescued when caught, "unto ever lasting life." The two boats ashore He said to Peter and Andrew. "Follow me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." To catch men is great. To be a fisher of men is greater. This process of change was to be a growth. You cannot become a real merchant, a true artist or a genuine success in anything in a day. You must grow, and grow largely by practice. No one can leap into the sky. Begin at the foot of the mountain and climb. "He said unto them, I will make you." Not Peter, the great evangelist, alone, but the reticent, obscure Andrew as well. The word is for all. We cannot follow the loving, compassionate, zealous Christ, and not become fishers of men,

Another incident: Time, Sabbath, place, Capernaum. Christ is seated on the "bema" speaking. A multitude is before him listening eagerly. What words! Simple as daylight, they were light. A tender heart spoke in every tone. He knew them, knew all their sorrow. He spoke way down into their hearts. The rapt attention is suddenly broken. Who is thie man, unkept, wild eyed, who has rushed into the synagogue and now stands before the people? He is one who is demonized. As a mesmerist hypnotizes his victime, so a demon controls this man. He is and does for the time being precisely what the demon wants. The demon through this man's mouth acknowledges Jesus as "The Holy One of God." Christ wants no such acknowledgement. He says "Hold thy peace and come out of him." The demon obeys Christ alone can free us from all demon control His fame went abroad. Just so a genuine conversion speaks widely and forcefully for christianity. That afternoon He healed "Peter's wife's mother," and she immediatbly ministered unto them. After sunset, the Sabbath ended, multitudes of sick were brought. The Merciful One healed, not some, but all We are many, and our soul maladies many, but the compassionate Jesus would heal us every one.

THE SHEDDING OF BLOOD.

Salvation is Only Secured by Obeying God's Commands.

Rev. E. H. Pence's morning sermon at the Presbyterian church was from the text in 1 Cor. 5:7-8. "For even Christ, our Passover, was sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast, not with the old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

The command to the Israelities was that they were to tell the story over and over again. It was to be a memorial of what God had done for them, The death of the first born throughout all the land of Egypt and the sprinkling of blood on the doorposts of the Israelites' houses, was their first great lesson that all men are sinners and that "without shedding of blood there is no remission of sins.' In their eyes the blood was the life and the shedding of blood showed that life had been taken. This was the law given on Mt Sinai, that never has been changed.

Another lesson taught by this was that of the common bond of the nation or family. They were to celebrate their feast as families, gathered round their own hearthstone. We are all bound together by a common guilt, a common redemption, a common Savior.

Another thing about this sacrifice was the fact that they used unleavened bread. In their haste they had not time that night to prepare leavened bread. This signifies purity. The leavening or fermenting process signifies decay or corruption. The unleavened bread signified the purity of heart and sincerity of purpose with which they were to keep this feast. The bitter herbs signified the bitter, hard, and dark experiences of their sojourn in the land of Egypt.

The lamb killed meant something more to them; it meant the shedding of the blood of their Messiah who was to come. And just as the lamb was brought in his first year, in the first vigor of his strength, so Jesus in his young manhood, in full intellectual, moral and spiritual power, brought himself as a lamb, "without blemish and without spot," for the sins of the world. "He that was without sin was made sin for us, that we might have the righteousness of God."

The Israelites were to eat of the lamb and gain strength from it for their journey. So Christ says: "He that partaketh not of my blood and my flesh hath none of me." We must have Christ and absorb him down into the depths of our being, and he will

TALK ABOUT BASE BALL

Amateur Players Will Organize For the Season Soon

Plenty of amateur base ball teams promise to occupy the local field this season.

Since no professional ball team is likely to entertain the lovers of the national game in this city this summer amateurs are figuring that it will be an excellent season for them. A considerable interest is shown in whatever the high school undertakes in an athletic way and the association believes it has the material for an even better ball team than that put into the football field last fall.

Secretary J. C. Kline, of the Y. M. C. A., has been looking over his material and believes he can get up a team that will make other amateurs go some. He has had a ball team and has played in teams in the semi-professional league.

CLEARED UP THE DOCKET

Green County Litigation For the Term Disposed of Saturday.

Jukge John R. Bennett closed the March term of the Green county court Saturday afternoon. The business before the court was practically disposed of several hours before that time, but court was held open waiting upon witnesses in the case of Isaac J. Macomber vs Anna Bailey who were expected but did not appear on account of illness. The evidence of witnesses present was taken and the matter will be finally disposed of at Janesville

The entire calendar for the term was disposed of with the exception of the case of G. T. Hodges, et. al. vs Patrick Nalty, which was withdrawn by the plaintiff to change form of complaint, it is understood that the case will be entered again at the fall term.

FOUGHT AGAINST BLACK HAWK

Veteran of the Indian War Still Living and Hearty.

Milton B. Persons, who traveled through Rock county during the Black Hawk war, celebrated his ninetieth birthday at Dodgeville Thursday. He was born in Duchess county, New York, March 3, 1808, and removed to Dodgeville October 10, 1827, and has resided there ever since. He served in the Black Hawk war under General Henry Dodge, and Captains Daniel M. Parkinson and James Gentry, and is now a pensioner on the roll of honor of that veteran band of volunteers that drove the Sacs and Foxes from Wisconsin and Illinois and captured their chief at the battle of Badax on the Mississippi river, thirty miles above Prairie du Chien.

For the Public Good.

In another part of this paper appears an advertisement worthy the reading, as it's for the public good. It tells of a Free distribution of Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy for Kidney Ills. Read it, and call at People's drug store March 9.

If only all housekeepers knew the value and comfort of matting, how much worry and work would be saved, how many dull houses would look cheery! If you own your home and have hardwood floors thank kindly destiny and dismiss the subject. But if you live in a rented house, or cannot afford hard floors, if for any reason you are considering the subject of floor-coverings, pause long before passing over the advantages of matting. It is clean, fresh and easily cared for. It is a perfect floor-covering in summer and an excellent background for rugs in winter—from the cheapest to the richest—adding to the cheerfulness of a room, yielding all accumulated dust to light brushing, possessing indeed almost every advantage that a floor-covering can have, with no disadvantages In making a move or refitting a house, every yard of it can be utilized. It is easily renovated (by soap and salt water), and can be matched or pieced, using the whole parts in two rooms to make one good complete room. Lastly, it is cheap, its growing popularity having so encouraged its manufacture or importation that it is to be had almost everywhere in great variety at moderate cost. To sum up its merits, matting gives a house a fresh, clean feeling, a sense of cheerfulness that no other floor covering gives. Its soft, new colorings make it available in the most carefully studied color schemes; it is pleasant to walk upon, is a practical protest against dust and microbes, is, in fact, both wholesome and satisfactory.—Home Companion.

NEWS FROM THE MORNING PAPERS

GEN. LEE TO STAY IN HAVANA.

Spain's Demand for His Recall Will Be Refused by Our Government—Weyler Denies Existence of Mines in the Harbor of Havana.

Washington, March 7.—President McKinley has refused to recall Consul General Lee from Havana at the suggestion of the Spanish government. It is not admitted by the state department that the Spanish minister demanded General Lee's recall, but it is stated emphatically that President McKinley has full confidence in General Lee's ability and discretion, and will not recall him.

COMMODORE M'NAIR.
He will command our naval forces in the event of war.

Judge Day has been very diplomatic in his discussion of the report from Madrid that Minister Woodford had been requested to notify President McKinley that Spain would be pleased at General Lee's recall. He declined to confirm or deny the report, but he did give out the statement that it would not be done.

He also said that the supplies to be sent to Matanzas and Sagua La Grande would be sent in a naval vessel. This is regarded as a declaration that the president does not intend to make any more concessions to the Dons. He has treated Spain with the utmost consideration, and has been deceived, and one of our finest battleships has been blown up in what was called a friendly port. He is getting ready to call Spain to account for that act, and he does not propose to sacrifice an official who has been faithful and courageous enough to tell him the truth as to the situation in Cuba.

General Lee is more than a consul general. He has diplomatic powers under the favored nation clause of the treaty with Spain, which allows this government the same rights in Cuba as Germany. The German consul in Cuba has diplomatic powers because there is no minister there. This government was recognized as entitled to the same consideration during the Cleveland administration.

SAYS NEITHER COULD CONQUER.

London Mail Declares Spain Could Inflict Appalling Damage.

London, March 7.—The Daily Mail, discussing the "probability that the United States may goad Spain into declaring war as a last desperate move," says: "In America's unprepared condition Spain could inflict appalling damage. Neither could conquer the other; and the utmost America could gain would be the equivalent triumph of securing Cuban independence. If Spain takes the first step America will have herself to thank."

The Daily Telegraph says editorially: "It is difficult for outsiders to judge such a case, but if it can be proved that Consul-General Lee has uttered a tithe of the anti-Spanish sentiments the Spanish and American press has credited him with, it is difficult to see why the principle America applied to Sackville and Senor Dupuy de Lome should not be invoked by Spain, whose request that merchantmen should replace men-of-war seems very reasonable and moderate.

"Serious as the situation is, we cannot admit that there are any grounds for a war between Spain and the United States. At most they are only flimsy and selfish pretexts, unworthy to serve as the motives of conflict among Christian and civilized nations."

SPAIN WILL PAY NO DAMAGES.

Havana Official Talks of Invoking European Arbitration.

Havana, via Key West, Fla., March 7.—The Spanish authorities will attempt to have the Maine affair laid before a joint British and German French or Austrian naval commission in case the Americans claim that there was an outside explosion. This statement was made by a high official here.

"We will never pay damages to the United States or submit to any other decision," said he. "If your country will not abide by the result, then prepare for war. Spain is tired of this continual interference in our affairs."

WEYLER REITERATES DENIAL.

Says There Were No Mines in the Harbor—Does Not Expect War.

Madrid, March 7.—General Weyler, in an interview, reiterated his denial that there were mines in Havana harbor. He said that before leaving the island he stayed with his staff for two days on board the steamer that was anchored in the very spot where the Maine was anchored. He added that he considered that all the facts in connection with the disaster would show that it was due to accident, perhaps to negligence. In conclusion, General Weyler stated that he did not expect war between Spain and the United States.

Secretary Long Orders Coal.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 7.—The Post says: "The United States government, by Secretary John D. Long of the navy department, has just closed a contract with Peale, Peacock & Kerr, coal operators in the new Pittsburg district, for the delivery at Key West, within forty days, of 400,000 tons of steam coal. This contract is unauthorized by congress, but is made under the emergency clause, which permits the heads of national departments to make large expenditures on the national credit without specific authority when the occasion arises therefor. The contract calls for the delivery of 10,000 tons of coal a day at Key West for forty days, shipments to commence on or before April 1."

Railroad Lines Are Cleared.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 7.—The Florida railways have been requested to stand ready at a moment's notice to furnish transportation for troops probably to Tampa and Miami, the most accessible points to Key West. Several of the roads have accumulated cars in their yards and are holding them for the purpose named. It is felt in Florida that this state would be the battle ground in the event that a hostile movement against Cuba was repulsed and the Spaniards assumed the aggressive.

Spanish Troops May Mutiny.

Key West, Fla, March 7.—In a letter from Havana printed in a paper here, it is said that the arrival of Spanish warships at Havana, together with the success that has attended the Spanish army in Cuba recently, has made the Spanish forces in that city exceedingly insolent in their treatment of Americans, a corps called the civil guard being at the point of mutiny because of the conservatism of Blanco.

Cubans Ready to Aid Us.

Key West, Fla., March 7.—Reports from Havana received here say that the Cubans in arms are fully prepared to march on Havana when the first gun of the American fleet is fired on Morro castle. General Gomez is concentrating his forces on the western side of the Jucara-Moron trocha. He has now about 5,000 men at Palo Prieto. General Garcia is also ready on the eastern side to come west, forcing the trocha with a strong army.

Orders to Fill Their Crews.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 7.—Orders were received at League island navy yard Sunday night from the bureau of navigation at Washington directing that the full quota of seamen and petty officers for the Minneapolis and Columbia be enlisted at once and that both vessels be prepared for sea without unnecessary delay. These orders are official, and not mere talk of the yard.

Spain Making Preparations.

Madrid, March 7.—The Imparcial says that Admiral Bermejo, the minister of marine, has telegraphed to Cadiz directing that the most active preparations be made to mobilize the fleet now being fitted for sea at that place, with a view to having the torpedo squadron sail as soon as possible for Cuban waters.

Americans Leaving Havana.

Havana, March 7.—Americans are making hurried preparations to leave Havana. Consternation prevails everywhere among them on account of the warlike attitude of Spain and the United States. They are closing out their business interests and sending their families from the city with all possible speed.

Cruisers Not to Go.

Key West, Fla., March 7.—The supplies for the starving Cubans will not be taken on the cruisers Montgomery and Nashville. It is understood that the dispatch-boat Fern will perform the duty. The change of plan was ordered from Washington.

More Spanish Troops Arrive.

Havana, Via Key West, March 7.—The steamer Alfonso XIII. of the Spanish line reached this port Sunday, bringing 1,500 Spanish troops. It was at first announced that the approaching vessel was the cruiser Cristobal, but this proved incorrect.

Itching Piles

Anyone who suffers from that terrible plague, itching piles, or from eczema, will appreciate the immediate relief and permanent cure that comes through the use of Doan's ointment. It never fails. Free samples at People's drug store March 9.

Banking Bill to Be Sent In.

Washington, March 7.—Senators Elkins and Aldrich and other leading Republicans claim to have received assurances from the banking and currency committee of the house that a measure of banking or currency reform will be reported as soon as the appropriation bills are out of the way.

New German Warships Hastened.

Berlin, March 7.—The budget committee of the reichstag has adopted the proposal that the new vessels of the German navy shall be finished in six instead of seven years.

CURES HEADACHE QUICK.

LINS PURGED OF CONTEMPT.

Judge Hilscher Renders Decision in Court Room at Joliet.

Joliet, Ill., March 7.—Julius L. Lins was declared purged of contempt by Judge Hilcher Saturday. The Wilmington brewer, who, with John P. King, J. C. Carloss and Henry Fell, was charged with attempting to bribe a juror to place fictitious values on property condemned for drainage canal purposes, received the congratulations of many friends who crowded the court room.

Attorney Haley, representing the sanitary district, immediately moved for leave to withdraw a juror. He also submitted a new affidavit in the charges against Lins, being the sworn statement of John E. Cox, stenographer, who claimed to have been secreted in a Joliet hotel Sunday taking notes of Lins' conversation with a detective, in which the brewer alleged to have made statements tending to show attempted bribery.

Judge Hilscher overruled the motion to withdraw a juror, and announced that the taking of testimony in the condemnation case would be put off until Monday at 1:30 o'clock. Attorney Haley stated that the evidence against Lins would be turned over to State's Attorney Heise and that the bribery charges will undoubtedly be looked into by the grand jury next week.

No change of venue can now be taken and the proceedings in the drainage canal case must go on before the jury as it is now constituted, including Boland, who is alleged to have been approached by Lins and Juror White, who is said to have been under Boland's influence. In declaring Lins purged of contempt the court said:

"I am free to confess that there are many unexplained things which fall far short of clearing up the very reasonable suspicion, but the sworn denials of the defendant must be taken as true, and I do not feel justified in issuing an attachment for contempt."

Dreadfully Nervous.

GENTS:—I was dreadfully nervous, and for relief took your Karl's Clover Root Tea. It quieted my nerves and strengthened my nervous system. I was troubled with constipation, kidney and bowel treuble. Your tea soon cleansed my system so throughly that I rapidly regained health and strength Mrs. S. A. Sweet, Hartford, Conn. Sold by People's Drug Co.

Says the Dredging Grant Is Jobbery.

New York, March 7.—La Presse, the leading French-Canadian daily here, severely criticised the grant in the Klondike region recently made to Mr. Mercier, because he is to be permitted to dredge 280 miles of rivers in the Yukon district. According to the official report prepared by William Ogilvie, La Presse places the minimum value of the grant at $100,000,000. It says that the grant is a gigantic job.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1774—British parliament closed the port of Boston. The "Boston tea party" of Dec. 16, 1773, led to retaliatory measures as soon as news of the affair reached parliament. That body immediately passed the "Boston port bill," which closed the port to all commerce and transferred the board of customs to Marblehead and the seat of the colonial government to Salem.

1874—Millard Fillmore, thirteenth president, died in Buffalo; born 1800.

1875—General Sir James Hope Grant, English conqueror of Peking in 1860, died; born 1808.

1892—Matilda Heron, actress, noted for her Camille, died in New York city; born 1830.

1888—C. C. Memminger, Confederate secretary of the treasury, died in Charleston; born 1800.

1895—Hyde Clarke, famous English linguist and scientist, died in London; born 1815.

1896—James H. McVicker, veteran theatrical manager, died in Chicago; born 1822.

REVENUE TIDE HAS TURNED.

For the first time since 1893 this country enjoys the sensation of a reported national surplus for the month of February. The receipts for the month were $28,572,358, derived from the following sources:

|---|---|
| Customs | $15 040,680 |
| Internal revenues | 12,003,319 |
| Miscellaneous | 1,528,359 |
| | $28,572,358 |

As will be perceived, there were no receipts from extraordinary sources The receipts for February for the last five years have been as follows:

|---|---|
| 1894 | $22,269,299 |
| 1895 | 22,888,057 |
| 1896 | 26,059,228 |
| 1897 | 24,400,997 |
| 1898 | 28,572,358 |

Turning to the other side of the national ledger, the expenses for February are shown in the following table, the sum of which is about $1,000,000 above the average of the preceding four years:

EXPENDITURES FEBRUARY, 1898.

|---|---|
| Civil and miscellaneous | $ 5.975,000 |
| War | 3.78 ),000 |
| Navy | 2,057.000 |
| Indians | 737,000 |
| Pensions | 11,978,000 |
| Interest | 3,100,000 |
| Total expenditures | $27.627,000 |
| Total receipts | 28,572,358 |
| Excess of receipts | $ 945,358 |

This is the first normal surplus shown by the monthly government statement since 1893. In 1894 the deficit for February was $4,456,071 in 1895 it was $2,807,978, and in 1897 $4,395,059.

This surplus, the Chicago Evening Post says, is a demonstration of the revenue producing character of the Dingley tariff comes at a most opportune time. We stand face to face with the necessity for extraordinary national expenditures. It may be that the clouds that lower over our relations with Spain may be dissipated without greater expense than is involved in putting our army and navy in a state of readiness for any emergency. But even this must increase our expenditures materially, so that it will preclude the temptation to congressional extravagance which is the only danger of a large national surplus. This we are not likely to experience for some time to come.

SALARY OF THE CITY ATTORNEY.

The question of the salary of the city attorney is being quite generally discussed at present, and some people favor raising it to $1200 per year on the ground that the holder of the office could then be expected to devote more time to the city's business. The present salary is $600 per year.

The suggestion is also made that the salary be left at $600, or reduced to $400, and lawyers hired by the city to assist in damage suits and other important litigation. The latter suggestion is made by an ex-city attorney. He does not favor the idea of raising the salary on the ground that while there are many damage suits pending at present, there is no likelihood that there will be as many in the future. In this case, he says, a salary of $1200 would be too high. If the salary was once fixed at that sum, he argues, it would never be reduced, but by the adoption of his suggestion' extra expense would be incurred only when it was necessary.

Many people are undoubtedly in favor of a change in the present system, and there seems to be a general belief that the city would be wise in paying more money to lawyers and less to damage suit claimants—"Millions for defense, but not one cent for tribute."

FACTS ABOUT PENSIONS.

Our pension list exceeds all Germany's army costs by more than $40,000,000 a year, and is $30,000,000 more than that of France. Only Russia's military expenditures upon her giant army, patrolling Europe and Asia, from the Baltic to the Yellow sea and the Indian ocean, exceed th sum which, thirty years after the close of the war, we still annually pay over to our pensioners. Russia's military burden, all told, is $176,942,600; our pension list is not quite equal to th s. Last year the government paid out $139,280,078 15 to 970,678 pensioners. Of this number 748,554 were invalids and 222,164 widows and dependent children. The number of pensioners was increased by 154 names, but the amount paid out was decreased $1,679,283.22.

The Milwaukee Harvester Company will enlarge its plant, and increase its output this season. The agricultural implement firms are flooded with orders these days, which shows conclusively that the farmers are not in the condition that the silver agitators would have them imagine. With wheat at a dollar a bushel, and silver at 55 cents an ounce, the farmers can readily see that it is not silver that sets the price of wheat, but the great law of supply and demand. Now that the workmen are employed they have money to buy food, and everything that the farmer can raise finds a ready market at a good price.

The Du Pont Powder company is turning out thirty tons of smokeless powder per day. New machinery is being put in, and the works are running full time, turning out more powder than ever before since the memorable days of 1861. The firm has orders to keep them full up with work for the government for many months.

Pictures of Judge Rose, one of the candidates for the democratic nomination for mayor of Milwaukee, hang on every saloon bar in the Cream City, and it is generally supposed that his election would mean "a wide open city." For this reason the people of Milwaukee will see to it that while the jurist's pictures may hang on the bar, his "hide" will "hang on the fence."

After Luetgert is put in charge of the sausage factory at Joliet prison the guards will probably be required to take an inventory of the female prisoners and flush out the vats several times a day. Otherwise the other convicts are likely to refuse to eat his sausage.

William Van Benthuysen, the veteran managing editor of the Chicago Tribune, has resigned his position, which paid $12,000 per year, and will soon go to New York, to assume the management of The World.

"Licking the editor" is no longer a popular pastime. Capt. Hedley, editor of a paper at Bunker Hill, Ill., shot and killed a man who assaulted him, and the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal.

I have been an intense suffrer for several years and everyone who has had that disease knows the extreme agony I must have endured. I ching burning, scratching, digging and loss of sleep has been my deplorable condition. Four of our best physicians had exhausted their energies on my case, without even giving me relief. Oh, what a godsend to me when one of our druggists called my attention to that wonderful remedy, Septicide, and assured me that it would do what skillful hands had completely failed in doing. Suffice it to say that two bottles cured me completely, so there is no return of this dreadful complaint. N. FARNHAM.

SACRED CASTLES

Laws Recognize the Sanctity of the Home.

Only Disease and Death Can Enter.

Old English law established the fact that a man's house is his castle. Not even the King can enter uninvited. The home can only be invaded by disease and death. Death will come sooner or later to everybody, but disease must now stand back for natural law as Kings must stand back for civil law. Munyon has discovered laws which overcome the chief diseases that affect mankind, and applies such laws in an effective way.

Lawrence O. Ryan, 80 years of age, living at 2504 Fifteenth Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn., says: "I was troubled with rheumatism for ten years. I tried numerous remedies, but was unable to secure any relief. My case finally became so bad that I was unable to use my hands and feet. At that time I heard of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure, but had no faith whatever in it. I was induced, however, to buy a bottle, and found, after using half of this bottle, that I had obtained a cure at last. I am now able to walk around and see my children—something I had been unable to do for the past seven years."

Mr. S. Oppenheimer, care of Arlington Hotel, Marietta, Wis., says: "I have used Munyon's Pile Remedy with the most satisfactory results. It has done me more good for that trouble than anything I ever used. I can highly recommend it."

Munyon has a separate cure for each disease, mostly 25 cents a vial, sold by druggists. If in doubt, write Professor Munyon, at Philadelphia, Pa., and get medical advice free.

ASK FOR AN EARLY ADJUDICATION

BANK OF EDGERTON CASE IS AGAIN BEFORE THE COURT.

Depositors Are Anxious To Have the Stay of Proceedings Dissolved—Fear the Assets Will Disappear if Longer Delay Occurs—Arguments Heard.

Another act in the drama entitled O. M. Geger et al vs. Bank of Edgerton stockholders and directors, was performed in the circuit court of Rock county today before Judge Bennett.

At 9 o'clock this morning the curtain was rung up on a scene that in details was about similar to proceedings that have been brought before His Honor in the same entitled action at previous times. About the court room sat several anxious depositors on one side, while on the other were several directors and stockholders of the defunct bank.

A Familiar Proceeding.

Attorneys Sutherland & Nolan of this city, and Olin and Butler of Madison, in behalf of the depositors were on hand to object to the stay of proceedings the stockholders recently asked for and received of the court, which, if allowed to stand by the court, would mean that the present case would linger along on its way to the supreme court for a whole year to come, which the plaintiffs claim would be just that much more unnecessary time consumed. Fethers, Jeffris, Fifield & Mouat and E. D. McGowan and J. M. Chancey of Stoughton, appeared for the defendants, the stockholders of the defunct bank, and they claim in part that the depositors are too hasty in their demand for a settlement of affairs, and that the plaintiffs in the present action want to amend the complaint making new parties to the action as defendants, as well as requiring much larger bond to be given.

The contention was to secure an order in behalf of the depositors asking for a stay of proceedings on the appeal from an order overruling the demurer of one of the defendants, Henry Marsden.

Want a Settlement

When the court recently issued the present stay of proceedings in favor of the stockholders, it also stated that the depositors had the right to show cause why the same should not be modified or set aside. Depositors in the back wishing that some settlement on some basis be made in the matter without having to linger along another year, appeared this morning and asked that the present stay of proceedings favoring the stockholders be set aside so that some action towards an immediate settlement could be made. John M. Olin, in behalf of the depositors, addressed the court, presenting an argument that perhaps touched the hearts of the stockholders present. From beginning to end he kept up a constant fire that was anything but pleasant to those it was intended to hit. He presented several arguments stating why the present farce should be ended instead of being allowed to linger in the courts for some months to come.

"The directors of that bank conduct things in an outrageous way," said Attorney Olin in a tone of voice that could be heard a block away, "and now the depositors don't propose to surrender all their rights. I have heard a good deal of late in regard to a settlement, and I know that the depositors tried to get a settlement on a fair and just bases, and I appeal to this court not to put anything in their way."

A Reasonable Wish

"The amount of this entire matter is that we depositors want a settlement right now of our affairs in the Bank of Edgerton case," said an interested depositor this morning. "It matters not to me whether I get 35 or 50 cents on the dollar as a final settlement, but there is one thing sure, if this case keeps in the courts much longer we depositors won't have enough coming to take us to the next circus that strikes town."

After hearing the arguments in the case the court this afternoon vacated the stay of proceedings, and the bond of $5,000 and gave the plaintiffs leave to amend the complaint on the payment of $10 costs.

The defendants then asked for a further stay of proceedings which motion was held open.

BUSINESS FOR THE COUNCIL

Two Damage Cases To Come Up For Consideration.

At a late hour this afternoon nothing of a special nature was scheduled to come before the common council which holds forth this evening.

The damage papers in the sidewalk cases of Mrs. Margaret Heffren and Mrs Margaret McCommons against the city will be presented, while the usual batch of bills will be brought up.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMEET.

For County Clerk.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of county clerk, subject to the decision of the republican county convention, and solicit the support, at the primaries of all republican voters who look with favor on my candidacy. W. R. PHILLIPS.
Evansville, Wis., Feb. 22, 1898.

For Street Commissioner

To the Voters of Janesville—I take this manner of announcing that I will be a candidate for nomination as street commissioner at the coming republican convention and will appreciate any favors that may be shown.

The young man looked at the blocks, then to the east, shook his head and decided to go to school.—Lewiston Journal.

WHERE THE CITY'S MONEY HAS GONE

ANNUAL REPORT OF CORPORATION TREASURER READY.

The Cash Collected and How It Has Been Disposed Of—Reduction in the School Bond Debt—The Cost of the Several Departments Given.

City Treasurer James A. Fathers today finished his annual report of the city of Janesville for the year ending March 1, 1898. The report is one of special interest to every taxpayer, and has involved much work upon the numerous city officials who had it in charge.

School Expenses

For the year past ending March 1 the following reports have been filed and will be presented to the common council at their meeting this evening. The school board has used to operate the city schools the sum of $37,446.17, the greater portion of which was for teachers' salaries, which will average $2,200 a month.

The general fund, which includes the salaries of the city officials, as well as street work and many other incidentals, required the sum of $28,164.70.

Departmental Outlays

For the fire and water fund, which includes the salaries of the firemen and the running expenses of the fire department, as well as the city water tax, which in itself amounts to nearly $6,000, the sum of $13,440.34 was required.

The city finds that the library fund is one of the smallest expenses for the year, the total outlay being $3,401.73.

The bridge committee report a total outlay of $746.78 for keeping the city bridges in repair during the past year. The replanking of Monterey bridge was the largest single expense.

Paying tee Debt

From an original High school bonded debt of $45,000 she second installment of $2,500 has been paid, as well as $2,625 interest, leaving a present bonded debt of $50,000.

To illuminate the city during the past year it has taken the sum of $11 870.66 itemnized as follows:

|---|---|
| Pliny Norcross | $10,625 33 |
| Globe Company of Chicago | 760 69 |
| New Gas Light Company | 484 64 |

From the forty-four saloons in this city a total revenue of $22.000 has been received, which amount is transferred to the general, fire and water fund.

One judgment of $2,000 has been paid outright by the city for sidewalk injuries to Rebecca Miller.

During the past twelve months the following sums have been paid to keep the streets in repair in the respective wards:

|---|---|
| First ward | $2,925 42 |
| Second ward | 958 74 |
| Third ward | 3,409 33 |
| Fourth ward | 2 687 30 |
| Fifth ward | 1,641 36 |

POPULAR IN COLORADO

Farewell Reception to Rev. S. P. Wilder, Late of This City

Rev. S. P. Wilder, former pastor of the Congregational church in this city, has just been tendered a farewell reception by his congregation at Pueblo, Col., who regret much his leaving for Delavan, Wis. The Pueblo Daily Chieftain of recent date says:

"During his entire residence in the city Mr. Wilder has taken an active interest in public and social affairs. Twice in succession he has been elected president of the Associated Charities and that organization has profited much through his wise direction. Among the ministers of the city Mr. Wilder has been held in the highest esteem and is now president of the Ministerial association. His sermons have always been thoughtful and he never hesitated to say just what he felt. Mrs. Wilder has always been a true helpmeat to her husband and she will be sincerely missed. Mrs. Wilder and daughter Marjorie will leave with Mr. Wilder on Tuesday. His son, John, now a student at the Centennial high school, will remain in Pueblo, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. D Thatcher until the school season is closed. The best wishes of not only his congregation, but of the whole city will follow Mr. Wilder and family wherever teey may go.

WILL RECOVER EVENTUALLY

Louis Sperry's Injuries Not Likely to Prove Fatal

Attending physicians report that Louis Sperry, the 13-year-old boy who was injured at the Phoenix planing mill Saturday, will recover in due time. The internal injuries he received were not of a serious nature, nor were any of his ribs fractured. The shock he sustained by the amputation of his arm at the wrist was a severe one. The boy's parents are not any too well supplied with this world's goods, and the accident is hard for them to bear.

HE LOVES LIQUOR TOO WELL

Beloit Young Man Whose Appetite Keeps Him in Jail.

For one of his years, Vant Bretson, of Beloit, who is now in the Rock county jail serving out a drunk sentence, has a record the average young man would not be proud of. Bretson, although not more than twenty-three years of age, has been sent to jail more times than he is years old. He is not considered by the jail officials as bad, and aside from the fact that he has an everlasting love for liquor, he possesses but few other faults.

HE HAD HIS EYE REMOVED

Painful Operation Undergone by Louis Moulton Recently.

Louis Moulton, of this city, is home from Milwaukee, where he underwent the painful operation of having his left eye removed.

About three months ago in this city, Mr Moulton says, he caught cold, and it settled in his eye. He was advised to place on it different kinds of poultices, which only had a tendency to make matters worse, and in the course of a few weeks, his entire eye rotted out, which resulted in having it removed and a glass one inserted. Mr. Moulton formerly worked for the Colvin Baking company, and has a host of friends here who will regret his misfortune.

Montana's Costly Wolves.

The largest wild beast bounty payment ever made in any state is now being made at Helena, Mon. It amounts to $50,096 and represents the balance due on the state's payment on the skins of 16,698 wolves and coyotes killed in 1897. The total cost to Montana's state government for the killing of these animals in 1897 amounts to $85,657, though claims for more than $150,000 were filed and verified. Besides this great sum paid by the state, at least as much more is paid by counties and private stockmen. It is estimated that the cost to Montana of keeping its wolf supply stationary—for the bounty has no effect in lessening the number—is not less than $400,000 a year.

New Idea In Building.

In Birmingham, England, a valuable piece of ground is over a railway tunnel, which will not bear the weight of a building. An architect has devised a house which projects over the tunnel on cantilevers and is held up by an apparatus like a butcher's steelyard. It consists of steel bars, with the house on the long ends and a huge block of concrete hung at the short ends to balance the building.—Special Cable New York Herald.

SIMPLICITY ITSELF.

A SIMPLE HARMLESS REMEDY

Yet It Cures the Worst Cases of Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

Dr. Jennison, who has made a life study of stomach troubles, says: All forms of indigestion really amount to the same thing, that is, failure to completely digest the food eaten; no matter whether the trouble is acid dyspepsia or sour stomach, belching of wind, nervous Dyspepsia or loss of flesh and appetite; a person will not have any of them if the stomach can be induced by any natural, harmless way to thoroughly digest what is eaten, and this can be done by a simple remedy which I have tested in hundreds of aggravated cases with complete success. The remedy is a combination of fruit and vegetable essences, pure aseptic pepsin and golden seal put up in the form of pleasant tasting tablets and sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. One or two of these tablets should be taken after meals and allowed to dissolve in the mouth and mingling with the food in the stomach digests it completely before it has time to ferment, decay and sour.

On actual experiment one grain of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest three thousand grains of meat, eggs and similar wholesome foods.

It is safe to say if this wholesome remedy was better known, by people generally, it would be a national blessing, as we are a nation of dyspeptics and nine-tenths of all diseases owe their origin to imperfect digestion and nutrition.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a secret patent medicine, but a fifty cent package will do more real good for a weak stomach than fifty dollars worth of patent medicines add a person has the satisfaction of knowing just what he is putting into his stomach, which he does not know, when widely advertised patent medicines are used.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full sized packages 50cts.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM THE PULPIT

REV. MR. KEMPTON SPEAKS OF CHRIST AND CREEDS.

Mr Hall Continues His Series on the Life of the Redeemer—The Ministry of Mercy Forms the Theme of Mr. Pence's Sunday Discourse.

emergy constantly in strength, power, might, character, deeds, thoughts, emotions, feelings.

And just as Jesus washed the disciples' feet, signifying cleansing, so he can cleanse our hearts of all impurities and we can get new strength to bear burdens, and to seize and use opportunites. And while the mighty Roman Empire crumbled away as a dream, this simple feast, commanded by the provincial Jesus to twelve men in an obscure, upper room in Jerusalem, remains to this day, and shall remain "till he come."

Mr. Pence's evening sermon was the third in the series on the early history of Christianity, being on the subject, "The First Spread and Preaching of Christianity in the Roman empire."

Next Sunday evening's subject will be "The Early Witnesses of Christian Life and Martyrdom."

SAVE ME FROM MYSELF

Theme of Rev. R. C. Denison Yesterday Morning

At the Congregational church yesterday the pastor, Rev R. C. Denison, preached from the theme, "Oh Save Me From Myself," in the text in Heb. 7-25. He said in brief: We all of us find ourselves in a condition at times where we want to be saved from ourselves. Few men can long endure solitude. He who can live alone must be either a brute or a God. We exhaust our own thoughts when shut up to ourselves. He who is unsaved from himself, who remains conscious of himself, to him is denied forever the highest kinds of work and pleasure and success. A man with a special faculty for doing one thing can narrow himself to that and shut out all the finer things of life. The orator must forget himself and hold his audience. Man is his own worst enemy. But a man is always a welcome guest to God if he will—he shuts himself out. Men can conquer everything but themselves. Alexander the great conquered the world and died in a drunken fit. The necessity of being saved from ourselves becomes most pressing when a man is tied up with his sin. Cain could find no rest from the remorse of his guilt, go where he would. Christ brings a practical and simple redemption to all these conditions of life. He does not ask a man to save himself by crushing his nature, but by developing, enlarging and lifting up the self to its true stature. A young man is saved by holding to a single noble purpose. A man who has failed sees what Christ was and lives to be like him then he is sacred. He bids us forget ourselves and follow Him. Not by making a man, not being, but by making him great does Christ save him.

The theme of the evening was "The Price of a Man."

REDUCED WAGES ACCEPTED.

Thirty-Five Hundred Men Take Their Old Places in New England Mills—Glass Workers of Indiana in Trouble—Co-operative Plan Advocated.

Biddeford, Me., March 7.—The strike of the 3,500 employes of the Pepperell and Laconia cotton-manufacturing corporations, which began on Jan. 17, when a general reduction of 10 per cent in wages went into effect, was declared off Saturday afternoon, and the big mills which have been silent since that date started up this morning. The operatives voted to return after a committee appointed by them waited upon Agent McArthur, who is the representative of both corporations, and were informed that the mills would not be the last in New England to pay the old wages when the cotton-goods trade should warrant a restoration.

The operatives have lost nearly $210,000 in wages since they came out on strike and business has been paralyzed. Agent McArthur stated he would start both big corporations in every department at once.

Gives Good Advice.

Muncie, Ind., March 7.—President D. A. Hayes of the national organization of green-glass workers has been here several days seeking to induce Ball Bros., fruit-jar manufacturers, to give the men who were discharged on account of the introduction of blowing machines a trial at working the machines. Fifty-two men were let out last week. In an address to his men in Union Labor hall, Mr. Hayes frankly told the glass-blowers that the inevitable was coming, that the patent blowing machines would soon let them all out, and that they might as well prepare accordingly.

Will Loan Their Funds.

Anderson, Ind., March 7.—The Indiana window-glass workers voted Sunday on a proposition made by their national association to foster co-operative manufacturing by loaning workers funds out of the treasury to start co-operative plants, limiting each loan to $200 to the man. There is almost $200,000 in the treasury to loan out in this manner. The result of the voting will not be announced for several days.

TRAIN WRECKERS IN PRISON.

Fivecoats and Jackman Enter on Sentences at Fort Madison.

Fort Madison, Iowa, March 7.—Fred Fivecoats and Frank Jackman, the two men found guilty of an attempt to wreck the Burlington flyer on Dec. 22 last and sentenced Saturday night at Osceola, Iowa, by Judge Towner to life imprisonment, were brought here by officers Sunday and began their sentences. The men confessed the crime after they were sentenced, and said their object was robbery. There were 260 passengers on the train and an immense quantity of costly holiday express. The obstruction on the track was thrown off by the engine trucks and the total destruction of train and passengers averted. The arrest and conviction of the men was a fine piece of detective work, and the rapidity of court process is highly pleasing to the public. Much talk of lynching was indulged in by excited citizens near Murray, Iowa, where the attempt at wrecking was made, but although nearly a thousand people gathered at the station no violence was offered.

Mills Is Out of the Race.

Houston, Texas, March 7.—The Post prints a letter from United States Senator Mills, in which he formally withdraws from the race for re-election, which leaves the field to Gov. C. A. Culberson. In his letter Mr. Mills gives as the principal reason for his withdrawal the recent action of the state executive committee, which made a stringent test for all persons desiring to participate in Democratic primaries and conventions.

Place Guns at Fort Morgan.

Mobile, Ala., March 7.—There has been renewed activity at Fort Morgan this week and a large force has been kept at work night and day. Lieutenant Cavanaugh of the engineer corps has been down there all the past week. Two disappearing guns, which had been in this city some time, and were hurried down there several weeks ago, have been placed in position and now are ready for business.

Fierce Fires in Australia.

Vancouver, B. C., March 7.—The latest Australian mail brings news of terrible devastation by bush fires. The colony of Victoria, like Tasmania, has suffered fearfully. Fires are reported from all parts of the colony, and much damage has been done. Scores of families are homeless.

General Rosecrans Is Worse.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 7.—The condition of General Rosecrans, who is lying ill at his ranch near this city, is reported to be slightly worse, though the physicians attending him say there is still hope of his recovery, and that even if the present attack proves fatal he may linger for some days yet.

FATAL FIRE AT PITTSBURG.

One Person Killed and Many Injured Four of Whom May Die.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 7.—At 6 o'clock Sunday morning fire broke out in the three-story brick tenement at 614 Webster avenue. Of the fifteen occupants of the house only four escaped injuries. One life was lost, four persons were fatally burned and six others were injured, some of them seriously. The dead is:

MRS. JOHN ENRIELLO, aged 30; overcome by smoke while trying to save others and was suffocated.

The injured:

Harry Lavine, aged 16; burned about the head, arms and legs; will die.

Lilly Lavine, his sister, aged 6; burned about the body so seriously that she cannot recover.

Max Werblinsky, aged 22; peddler; burned about the head and body; will die.

Ethel Werblinsky, his 8-month-old daughter; burned; will die.

Mrs. Werblinsky, aged 22; wife of Max Werblinsky; head and arms burned; may recover.

Mary Lavine, sister of Harry and Lilly; head and arms blistered and limb broken in jumping from second-story window with her 3-year-old sister Rita. The child was hurt in the fall. Both will likely recover.

Louis Lavine, aged 12, who also jumped; arms burned and body bruised.

Benjamin Lavine, aged 8; injured internally by jumping from window.

Harry Lauchman, aged 20; clothing salesman; burned on face and head while fighting his way to a window and bruised by fall on pavement.

An explosion of a coal oil lamp, it is thought, caused the fire. The first to discvover it was John Enriello. He called his wife. Without stopping to think of her own safety the woman dashed through fire and smoke to awaken the other inmates of the house. She succeeded in doing this and started to grope her way from the third to the first floor. Her body was found on the stairway.

The Lavine family occupied the second floor rear rooms. Hand in hand Harry and Lilly ran through the flames which were racing up the stairway. Then they jumped from the windows. Werblinsky, with his baby, also tried to break through the wall of fire. Both inhaled flames.

JUDGE FEARS ASSASSINATION.

Plot Revealed Relative to Verdict in Lattimer Shooting Case.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 7.—Judge Woodward claims that he has discovered a plot to assassinate him, as well as the entire sheriff's posse, on trial for the massacre of the strikers at Lattimer, should the jury fail to convict the prisoners.

It is generally expected that there will be a verdict of acquittal after the jury has been out a short time. Should this expectation be realized, the judge says, he fears there will be an attempt not only to assassinate him and the deputies, but to blow up the court house with a bomb.

The alleged existence of a secret organization among the miners and their friends was to-day revealed by Judge Woodward himself.

Italian Duel Results Fatally.

Rome, March 7.—Sig. Felice Carlo Cavalotti, poet, dramatist, publicist and the well-known radical member of the chamber of deputies for Corte-Olona, was killed here Sunday in a duel with swords with Sig. Macola, member of the chamber of deputies and editor of the Gazetta di Vinezia. The encounter was the outcome of a press polemic in the columns of the Milan Secolo and the Gazetta di Venezia.

Rothschilds Back of Road.

Juneau, Alaska, March 1 (via Port Townsend, Wash., March 7.)—That the Rothschilds will attempt to build a railroad to the Yukon is now believed to be certain. The steamer Walcott, which arrived here last night, landed a party of more than forty men and equipments for railroad building at Pyramid harbor, near the Pyramid harbor salmon cannery, last Sunday.

Lieut. Frank Kalke Killed.

Burlington, Iowa, March 7.—Lieut. Frank Kalke of the United States army, commandant at Iowa Wesleyan university at Mount Pleasant, in attempting to board a freight train here at 5:30 o'clock Saturday, missed his footing and was cut completely in two at the waist. He leaves a wife and two children at Mount Pleasant.

DR. MILES' NEW HEART CURE,

The Great Heart and Blood Tonic.

Heart disease in some form is much more prevalent than people suppose Scarcely a day passes that we do not read an account of the sudden death, from heart disease, of some prominent person, who was stricken down without warning, and while apparently in the best of health and bodily vigor. Your turn may come next. You may not die suddenly; but if your heart is not toned up and strengthened, your circulation improved and your stomach regulated other troubles will carry you off. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure will do all these and more. It is a great blood tonic, purifying, vitalizing and enriching it, and sending the elements of health and strength to every nerve, organ and tissue.

Mrs. Dorlaska Reed of Moravia, N. Y., is eighty years old, but is enjoying the best of health. She says: "For years I suffered with shortness of breath, severe pains in my left side and shoulder. I had frequent smothering spells, and was troubled a great deal with gas on my stomach. I had been treated by a physician but to no avail, and I decided to try Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. After using a number of bottles I was greatly improved in health. My appetite soon returned, those smothered feelings disappeared, and the pain left my side and shoulder. I have gained in flesh and strength, and feel better than I have before in many years I attribute my present splendid health to nothing but Dr Miles' New Heart Cure, and always recommend it to my friends"

A weak heart affects all other organs of the body by depriving them of nourishment. It is frequently accompanied with nervousness, irritability, unsound sleep. Dr Miles' Heart Cure is the most reliable medicine known for such troubles and will positively give relief when others fail.

A POSITIVE GUARANTEE.

You run no risk in giving Dr. Miles' Heart Oure a trial. If the first bottle fails to benefit you, take the empty bottle to your druggist and get your money back. All druggists are authorized to sell the first bottle with that understanding. Book on the heart and nerves sent free. Address,

Henry Miller's Genuine Success In "The Master."

STRONG LESSON TO THE ACTOR.

It Proves That His Forte Lies In Delineation of Character Old Men — Daughter of the Kendals to Sing In Vaudeville. Comment on "Stellar Alliances."

Henry Miller appears to have scored a genuine success in "The Master," the new play by G. Stuart Ogilvie, which is the current attraction at the Garden theater. Not only is "The Master" so good a play technically as to please the critics of New York, but it also seems to be a box office piece, as the attendance, I have been informed, has been very heavy since the second night.

Mr. Miller ought to permit himself to see that when his friends told him a few years ago that his forte was the delineation of old or middle aged men of an unusual nature, they were correct. The only triumph in Mr. Miller's recent career which was equivalent, or nearly so, to that which he has won in "The Master," was his impersonation of the character of Brabazon in "Sowing the Wind." Then he was an old man of peculiar temperament and ideas, and he was thereby enabled to get away from the stereotyped and sometimes rather mushy speeches which playwrights will persist in putting into the mouth of the fellow who is doomed to marry the heroine or at any rate to be engaged to her before the final fall of the curtain.

If Mr. Miller is wise, he will profit by this double lesson, but as leading men like to play "lover parts," and as Mr. Miller is now more than a leading man, it is just possible that in spite of everything he may give the "old men" the go by and foolishly continue to confine his attention to "heroes."

There has been a good deal of talk in theatrical circles in this city over the rumor that Ethel Kendal, daughter of the famous "Mr and Mrs. Kendal," who delight to be referred to as the shining lights of stage propriety, is not only to adopt the profession of her parents, but that she is actually to go into vaudeville. I have had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Kendal and I can imagine with what glee this announcement will be received by her. There has been much speculation as to the cause which prompted Miss Kendal to take this step. "Why," ask the inquisitive, "is it that if she must go on the stage, she does not take to legitimate work instead of entering what is usually considered the lowest and most undesirable branch of theatricals?"

The answer is simple to a degree. Miss Kendal wanted to adopt the stage as a profession a long time ago, but her mother would not even discuss it. The father did not like the idea either, but he was not so emphatic as his good wife, who, it is said, can be very, very emphatic when she wishes to. There was a family flare up, and about a year ago Miss Kendal came to this city. Report has it that she has since corresponded with her father only.

At any rate, as she has a very fine voice, it was determined to give it a trial in public. The result was quite satisfactory, and Miss Kendal began to cast about for an engagement. She found that she could get nearly three times as large a salary in vaudeville as in legitimate work, and she had practically accepted an offer of Mr. J. Austin Fynes, the general manager of the Proctor houses, when she was stricken with illness. It is understood that as soon as she is well enough to appear on the stage her vaudeville debut will be made in this city.

Contrary, however, to an absurd story, she will not do a "sketch," but will simply sing a few songs at each performance.

So now the world may resume its normal condition and proceed to jog along at the same old pace.

There are "wars and rumors of wars" everywhere in this country excepting in that small portion of it which is bounded on the north by Forty-second street, on the south by Twenty-eighth street and on the east and west by the walls of the buildings abutting on Broadway. That is the Rialto, and there "there are stars and rumors of stars." Many of them do not pass the rumor stage, but there are others who do.

The recent phenomenal success of the "Three Star Alliance" composed of Lillian Russell, Della Fox and Jeff De Angelis has naturally inspired imitation. There are in consequence all kinds of stellar combinations, one little repertory company, which always plays a one night stand a whole week and charges "10, 20 and 30," even going to the length of having an "All Star Aggregation." There are several of these companies which have, or say they have, two, three and sometimes four or five stars, and still it does not appear to injure their business materially.

But here is a contemplated alliance of three stars who will appear in serious work. They are Louis James, Frederick Warde and Mlle. Rhea. Messrs. Warde and James have tried the experiment of combining forces before, and I have understood that it worked very well indeed. They were obliged to have some one to play the leading female roles, and it would therefore seem to be the part of wisdom to get a woman who has a reputation and who is able to draw something into the house on her own account. That Mlle. Rhea, no matter how persons may differ as to her artistic ability, can do beyond a doubt. The arrangement ought to prove an excellent and profitable one all round. We have just now no transcendently great tragedians in this country, but Warde and James are among the best we possess, and there certainly ought to be enough lovers of Shakespeare in the United States to support one first class company.

The Warde-James-Rhea enterprise is, as has been stated, a legitimate one and deserves to succeed, but the absurd manner in which irresponsible fly-by-night managers advertise "stellar alliances" is enough almost to cause an actor of repute to be careful to guard against permitting the use of any sort of publicity which will even suggest that much abused form of inane flamboyancy.

It is pretty safe to assert that Mme. Helena Modjeska is one of the happiest women in this country. When she arranged for her recent appearance in this city at the Fifth Avenue theater, her friends were somewhat fearful of the outcome. There exists for some reason a prejudice against performers who have temporarily retired from the stage and later conclude to "try it again." In Modjeska's case it is said that the determination to make another tour was prompted by necessity. She was well received throughout the country, but it was by no means certain that New York would take kindly to an actress who might possibly be regarded as a "has been."

The result proved that all these misgivings were baseless, for Modjeska never had a greater triumph in this city. The magnitude of her success may be understood when it is stated that Edwin Knowles of the Fifth Avenue, one of the shrewdest managers in this country, has signed the Polish actress for a return engagement in the latter part of March. The original time would have been extended instead, but it was found impossible to buy off the attractions which had previously been booked. Already there have been numerous inquiries for seats for the return visit, and it is likely that Mme. Modjeska may be seen here for a longer period than has been arranged for if the necessary shifting about can be accomplished.

One thing is quite certain, and that is that the great Polish tragedienne is now as potent an attraction as ever—not only here, but in nearly every important city in this country.

Miss Elizabeth Robyns has recently come to this city from London with the avowed intention of inculcating in the minds of the barbaric Americans a taste for plays of the type affected by Ibsen, Echegary and others of that class. Her task is a herculean one, and, inasmuch as she did not thoroughly convert London, a city which is notoriously quick to take up anything which savors of a fad, it is not probable that she will excite New York to any very great extent. Besides, while it is true that Miss Robyns is a worthy exponent of a certain sort of stage work, it is also true that we are not the novices in that direction which she seems to assume that we are.

Minnie Maddern Fiske has given us several of Ibsen's morbid dramas, and it would be foolish to imagine that the English woman is Mrs. Fiske's superior as an actress. Then, too, the Criterion Independent Theater people have been assiduously looking after our theatrical welfare and providing us with plays by Ibsen and other equally uninteresting though indubitably powerful writers. So that if Miss Robyns expects that her coming and the unfolding of her plans will produce a marked sensation in this city she is bound to be a very much disappointed woman. We are slow to take up fads here, and that explains better than anything else could why Miss Robyns' mission is certain to be a failure.

HARD RUNNING.

An Exciting Cross Country Race Through Water and Mud.

In a recent cross country run on Long Island the contestants got more than they bargained for. Eighteen young athletes covered six miles back of Long Island City and brought much of the country home on their clothes.

The roads were deep in mud, the fields were soft and slushy, and temporary rivulets were as frequent as fences and bobtailed dogs. The hares had strewn the bits of white paper along all kinds of difficult paths, and the hounds had but to follow.

This run had been looked forward to as one of the most important outdoor athletic events of the winter and a large number of spectators gathered at the clubhouse. From the very beginning the pace was hot notwithstanding the mud and melting snow. Still the mud was not very deep but it spattered like cornmeal batter. Farther on the worst kind of country roads were encountered. The melted snow had caused several pretentious streams to come into existence, and there was only one way to cross them—wade. The runners hesitated only for a moment, then plunged in. Some of them were dampened as far up as their knees. The scratch men were overtaking some of the slow men, but Kennedy could not be caught. He was far in front and maintained his advantage to a successful finish.

CROSS COUNTRY RUNNING.

TO DISCUSS APPROPRIATIONS.

Needs of the District of Columbia Will Receive Attention in the Senate—Our Relations with Spain to Occupy the Time of the House.

Washington, March 7.—The senate will in all probability begin the week with the consideration of the bill making appropriations for the District of Columbia, and when this is completed will take up the conference report on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, which has been agreed upon, and will be made to the senate to-day. It is considered quite probable that the District bill will consume two or three days, or even more. One of the questions in this bill which may arouse debate is the action of the senate committee on appropriations in striking out the item in the bill as it came from the house limiting telephone charges in the District. There will be an effort to restore this provision.

The census bill, the Methodist book agent bill and Senator Pettigrew's bill donating 5 per cent of the proceeds of sales of public land to the various states in which the lands are located, will contend for right-of-way when there are no appropriation bills to receive attention, and it is as yet uncertain which of them will be first taken up. All of these may be antagonized by the Hawaiian annexation treaty, but the plans of the foreign relations committee with reference to the treaty are so far too indefinite to permit any prediction as to what it will do.

MAY DISCUSS CUBAN RELATIONS.

Forecast of the Week's Work in the National House.

Washington, March 7.—It is probable that the bill for the relief of the survivors of the victims of the Maine disaster and the senate bill creating two additional regiments of artillery with which to man the coast defenses will pass the house this week. The former bill was held up until it could be investigated, as it was said that the special bill for the relief of the survivors and victims of the Samoan wreck in 1888 led to some scandal. That bill was loosely drawn and it has been asserted some advantage of its provisions was taken. The present bill has been carefully drawn and is now satisfactory to Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriations. Practically all opposition to the artillery bill has now disappeared in the house. The leaders were, it is said, in favor of delaying action upon it to allay public alarm, which might have been intensified had it been rushed through the house as it was through the senate.

Beyond action on these two measures the house program this week so far as is now anticipated is entirely peaceful and has no reference to possible foreign complications.

CHINA IN RUSSIA'S GRIP.

The Czar Demands the Cession of Port Arthur and Ta-Lien-Wan.

London, March 7.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times says Russia has demanded that China surrender to her all sovereign rights over Port Arthur and Ta-Lien-Wan for the same period and on the same conditions as in the case of Germany at Kiao-Chou. Besides this, Russia demands the right to construct a railway under the same conditions as the Trans-Manchurian railway, from Petuna on that line (near the River Sungari) to Kwang-Chung-Tsu, Mukden and Port Arthur. Five days are given for reply and the agreement must be signed within a month.

In the event of non-compliance Russia threatens to move her troops into Manchuria. China will, perforce, yield. By this agreement Russia will obtain the right to send soldiers into Leao-Tung, ostensibly for the protection of the railway engineers.

Russian assurances that the ports will be open to the world are deceptive, inasmuch as, while conforming to these assurances, Russia can convert either port into a second and stronger Vladivostock.

Kills Girl and Tries Suicide.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, March 7.—While returning from church Sunday evening Alfred S. Healey, a stenographer, 25 years old, shot Miss Libbie Brauchard, a young girl of 15, killing her almost instantly. Then he sent a bullet crashing through his own head, just above the temple, inflicting a fatal wound. The murder and suicide are a mystery. So far as known the girl and Healey were not lovers, although it was known they were on most friendly terms.

---

Chicago Murder Mystery Solved.

Chicago, March 7.—William J. Willows was arrested last night for complicity in the murder of Andrew McGee Feb. 26 at No. 2030 Indiana avenue. He confessed. He implicates in the crime George Jacks, the ex-chief of police of Muskegon, Mich., who was convicted last week on the charge of burglarizing Dr. Louise Hagenow's flat on North Clark street.

War Ships Due at Hong-Kong.

Suits and Skirts.

In the correct styles for Spring of '98 can be seen here. The line comprises the best things from leading manufacturers; garments that are absolutely correct in every detail of material, trimming, tailoring and price. Probably you'll not find another such assortment elsewhere in this vicinity. However, we shall be glad to have you look before coming here, for then you will be still more deeply impressed with the superiority of our department.

Stylish women have found that this store is first to show correct apparel of every description—first to show for spring of '98 the correct models in Tailor Made Suits and separate Skirts—by all odds the largest line in Southern Wisconsin. Janesville agency for "Worth" Dress Skirts, noted for their excellence of finish—every skirt with a pocket, finished seams, and all the little details looked after. You might notice the windows for a display of a few special garments.

All this week we shall make a feature of Suits, Skirts and Jackets for Spring.
